OLD ENGLAND.

By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, MARCH 12, 1748. [Nº. 184.]

Tempora mutantur, & nos mutamur in illis,
The Times are chang'd, and ſo 'Squire Jeffrey's Quill-is.

A POLITICAL Author, who writes upon Principle, having Truth for his Guide, is ever conſiſtent with himſelf, never deviating from the Track in which he ſets out, or loſing Sight of his Purpoſe; often weighing, in his Reſts, the Immenſity of his Journey, and comparing in his Mind the painful Steps he has already taken with thoſe he is ſtill to take: Like the Eaſtern Magi, who follow'd the glorious Blaze of the divine Star, he attends the upright Dictates of his ſpotleſs Conſcience, and wades thro' the Gulphs of Obſtruction and Diſcouragement which ſtand before him, and the Mazes of Error and Confuſion, on either Side, into glorious Day-Light and Security; whereas a Wretch, who proſtitutes his Pen for Lucre, has no ſolid Foundation to tread upon, nor Attention to mark out his Footſteps; which frequently ſlip, and give him a Fall. Every Will o' the Whiſp miſleads him, and he is ever in Bogs and Marſhes up to the Knees, bewilder'd in Error and loſt inconſiderately in the Depths of Corruption and ſelf-intereſted Views; whence he can never diſengage himſelf, but remains a Monument of Contempt, and the Butt of Ridicule, to every travelling Pen. So much by Way of Preface; now to apply.

Whereas it has been rumour'd very induſtriouſly about, that the late Jeffrey Broadbottom, of Covent-Garden, Eſq; has been frequently ſeen in his Majeſty's Exchequer, under the Diſguiſe of a Turn'd Coat, ſigning Receipts in the Name of Priſcus, and uſhering forth certain Miniſterial Pamphlets among the Publiſhers of this famous Metropolis of Great-Britain, in Honour of the Coalition: Now KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I Argus Centoculi, taking upon me the Vindication of my aforeſaid venerable Predeceſſor, do certify, that the Body of the ſaid 'Squire Broadbottom was interr'd in the Church-Yard of St. Paul, Covent-Garden, in or near the Sepulchre of the famous Road-Hero du Val, after ſome Difficulty from the ſcrupulous Curate, by Reaſon of his having died in his Shoes; as in and by my Paper of the 1ſt of October 1745, Reference being thereunto had it doth and may more fully appear. So that it is humbly conceived the ſaid 'Squire has never riſen ſince, and conſequently that he did not write the Caſe reſtated, in an Anſwer to another Pamphlet which had got the Start of him; of which I ſhall give no Opinion, other than (as our monthly Magazines phraſe it) it contains more in Quantity than any other Book of the ſame Price: But as to the firſt, my Curioſity, from the Reputation of the inliſted Author, prompted me to give it a Reading. I thought to have anſwered it, if I had not found it done very well to my Hand in the laſt London Magazine, where the conſiſtent RESTATER and his Arguments are very freely and familiarly handled.

Now every Reader, who was acquainted with the Works of our political 'Squire, however denominated or diſtinguiſhed, muſt have obſerved, that he was a Man of high Principles, and had a dutifully-natural Biaſs to Nonjuriciſm; as may be ſeen in an excellent Letter which one Priſcus publiſh'd, not long ſince, in the courtly Whitehall Poſt: And alſo, that my Friend Jeffrey, in the Courſe of his political Lucubrations, had diſcovered no ſmall Contempt of thoſe whoſe happy Ignorance prevail'd againſt the Experience of our late great Miniſter; who, in his Madneſs, was going to knock up the War in one well-concerted ſingle Campaign, which, as a late Man of Dignity in good Queen Anne's Days ſaid, would render them all uſeleſs. But let our 'Squire ſpeak for himſelf: In his Conſtitutional Journal, No. 101, April 6, 1745, after alluding to the laſt Change of Hands, he ſays, "But dammoſa quid non imminuet dies? What will not one damn'd Day diminiſh?—The Day which ſaw Honours, Poſts and Places conferr'd, ſaw Virtue and public Spirit begin to melt within the Sun-Shine of a C——. Every Profeſſion of pretended Patriotiſm, every Sentiment of affected Honour, which, like Maggots, during the Winter Oppoſition, had grown upon the Tongues and crawl'd about the Brains of certain Gentlemen, now ripen'd in this Summer of their Succeſs into Butterflies, and bruſhed away upon their mealy Wings. I have ſaid and I avow it, that Things have been alter'd for the worſe.—Let the gall'd Horſe go wince. Is there a Man who has a Face ſo unbecoming every Sentiment of Honour, ſo unbluſhing at every Meaſure of Diſgrace, as to deny it? Gentlemen ſet out in their Oppoſition to the late M——r, upon the ſingle, the ſole Principle that the War we are now engaged in is an H———r War; every Bulk, every Bench, every Whore, and every Hawker, was taught to reſound H———r: What an Alteration happened the Moment our virtuous Patriots came themſelves to fill up the Seats of M———l Power! The War then, from being a damn'd, villainous, wicked, unjuſt H———n War, became a true, right, genuine Engliſh War. The Money given to ſupport it, from being extravagant, became all of a ſudden rather too little for the glorious Purpoſes of ſuch a War.———As Wickedneſs and Weakneſs are ſeldom found to be ſeparate, ſo our M——ymonging Patriots had not the Precaution of obſerving one Step of common Decency, ſo as even to colour their Apoſtacy with ſome Varniſh of Pretence. They were uncautious enough to give the Lie to all their Patriotiſm, by ſuffering authentic Writings to be publiſhed all over Europe, declaring, that, by the diſplacing the late M———r, no Manner of Alteration in foreign Meaſures at this Court was intended. There was ſomething in this amazingly mean, as it gave a glorious Acquittal to their Antagoniſt, by owning, in the Face of all Europe, and to the Teeth of all B———n, that their Oppoſition was not the Meaſures but the Perſon of the M———r; that their Diſlike aroſe, not from his Practices, but his Power.—Every Fool may affect the Manner, and every Coxcomb repeat the Words of a Man of Senſe; but never can they riſe up to his Spirit, his Dignity, or Purpoſe: Every bungling Politician may filch, and then adopt the Schemes of a great Man; but how fatally ridiculous muſt he appear when they come to be executed? how inglorious for the K——, how unfortunate for the Kingdom?—To effect a great Cataſtrophe, it requires not only that the Plan ſhould be ſimple and uniform, but that one Hand ſhould conduct the Execution.

The greateſt Foe of the late M———r never denied that he poſſeſſes great, but terrible, Parts; and that his Meaſures, however dangerous, were deciſive; but to bring them to happy Deciſion, his own Hand and his own Head. Like the Management of a mighty Machine, the Powers which are to direct it, and the Principles by which it works, muſt be clearly underſtood, otherwiſe it will go fair to beat out the Brains, if he has any, of the bungling Engineer.———Could I have been perſuaded, that the Principles of the late Miniſter's Meaſures were right, than me no Man in England ſhould have been more ready, both with his Tongue and his Pen, to have recommended them; but my Oppoſition aroſe from not agreeing that the Principles were right. The Gentlemen who have ſucceeded him have agreed that they were right, nay extremely, extravagantly right! only, that they themſelves are much more capable to carry them into Execution than he was;——and I deny, ſuppoſing them either right or wrong, that the Abilities of thoſe who have adopted them, are in any Degree equal to their Execution.——In this Light therefore ought the preſent Oppoſition (viz. to the Coalition) to ſtand with every Man of common Senſe and Virtue; ſuch a one may be againſt the late Adminiſtration, but he MUST be againſt the preſent; he will oppoſe the firſt in ſome Events, he will oppoſe the latter in ALL.

Then, ſuppoſing a Neceſſity of plunging into a Gulph for the Good of the Nation, ſays old Jeffrey;—let him rather truſt to the Steed that has Vigor and Strength, than to ſomewhat betwixt Horſe and Aſs, without the Spirit of the one or Honeſty of the other, without Courage to ſtem the Force of the Flood, or Addreſs to manage it's Rage.—The late Adminiſtration had indeed the Merit of keeping ſome Decorum with the Public; the preſent has deſpiſed even that: Intoxicated with pilfer'd Power, they have diſregarded the Precautions which even common Prudence might have dictated: Directed by the worſt of Motives, they have gone greater Lengths than were neceſſary, even for their keeping Poſſeſſion of their precarious Employments. Let the boldeſt of their Advocates, if they have an Advocate, ſtep forth and ſay, whether, ſince they came into Poſts, they have purſued one Meaſure for which they ſpeech'd, wrote and voted, when they were out. Let him prove if there was one Charge by them againſt the late Adminiſtration, which does not recur with redoubled Force upon themſelves. Has not every Underling, planted in Employment by the Father of Corruption, been protected, encourag'd and promoted?——Nothing can remove the Unpopularity which Court Employments have fallen into, by the Management of the long Adminiſtration of the Father of Corruption, but the Removal of the ſmaller Vermin which he introduced into public Offices, and which now ſwarm about in almoſt all Companies, as Nuſances to every Man of Virtue and Senſe:—As well may they think that a Ship will fight well if all the Sailors are Cowards, as to imagine any Adminiſtration can be popular, where every Corner offends the Eyes and Senſes of the People with a public Nuſance protected and promoted by that Adminiſtration."

Theſe were the juſt Sentiments of 'Squire Broadbottom when living, in relation to the motley Adminiſtration, which now, when dead, he is ungenerouſly ſtigmatized with defending. I am ſorry I have not Room to give the whole weekly Diſſertation at length, which I think deſerves to appear in Letters of Gold on St. J's Gate, for a Memorial to the Coalition; and upon the Exchequer Door, as a Teſtimony of 'Squire Jeffrey's ingenuous Conſiſtency. Many other ſententious Obſervations have I marked in ſome of his ſubſequent Papers, in order to retail out to the Public, as often as I find my late venerable Friend brought out of Death to oppoſe himſelf in Life.

This Turncoat Appearance! this Priſcus! this Something or this nothing in the Exchequer! is no more than a mere illuſion, the very Chimæra of ſome fickly Brain! and is very irreconcileable with the virtuous Self-Denial which my old good Friend profeſs'd, in more than one of his Conſtitutional Papers; as having reſiſted the Temptation of Place from the late Miniſter; whom he owns to have been a Man of great Parts and of deciſive Meaſures, to be oppoſed in ſome Events only. Can it then be imagin'd that, were he living, ſo much Virtue could ſo ſhamefully degenerate in ſo ſhort a Time, as to beg, ſue for, and accept of the pitiful Place of Self-Contradictor, from the Bounty of Thoſe whom his faithful Pen had recorded as weak and wicked! betwixt Horſe and Aſs! intoxicated with pilfer'd Power, and to be oppoſed in ALL Events?

N. B. I thank True Hiſtory for his Intelligence, and ſhould be glad of more.

LONDON.

We hear that the Parliament will riſe about Eaſter; and that the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons will go to Bath for the Recovery of his Health.

A Bill is ordered into Parliament for building a Church in the Town of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, and for enlightning and cleanſing the Streets in the ſaid Town, and for keeping and maintaining a Regular Nightly Watch there.

His Royal Highneſs Prince Henry is in a fair way of Recovery.

On Saturday laſt an Inqueſt was impannell'd, in Purſuance of a Commiſſion of the Court of Chancery, to enquire into the Lunacy of the moſt Noble Marquis of Annandale, viz. George Lord Carpenter, Foreman, Sir Robert Rich, Bart. Sir Hugh Smithſon, Bart. Sir John Croſs, Bart. Nicholas Woolaſton, Eſq; John Powell, Eſq; Temple Stanyan, Eſq; Tho. Rea, Eſq; Sir Robert Groſvenor, Bart. Sir Anthony Weſtcomb, Bart. Sir Thomas Clarges, Bart. William Rugg, Eſq; John Upton, Eſq; and Thomas Powell, Eſq; who, upon a full Examination of Witneſſes, and of his Lordſhip, found, that the ſaid George Marquis of Annandale is a Lunatic, and incapable of the Government of himſelf and his Eſtate; and that his Lordſhip had been ſo from the 12th of December, 1744.

We hear that Sir Robert Groſvenor, Bart. has out of his Goodneſs, in Conſideration of the Loſſes his Tenants have ſuſtained, by the Death of their Cattle, forgave each of them one Year's Rent.

A few Days ago died, the Right Hon. William Herbert, Marquis and Earl of Powis, Viſcount Montgomery, Baron Powis, and Baronet, who was lineally deſcended from Sir Edward Herbert, ſecond ſon of William Earl of Pembroke, the late Marquis's Grandfather; was created Viſcount Montgomery, and Marquis of Powis, by King James II. and going before him into France, that Prince after he retir'd thither created him Marquis of Montgomery and Duke of Powis, but theſe Honours were never acknowledged here. His Son, and the Father of the late Marquis, was called by Writ into the Houſe of Peers, October 8, 1722, by the late King, and thus the Family became reſtored to the Honours of Marquis of Powis, &c. which extinguiſhed in the Nobleman above-mentioned, who was the laſt Male Heir of his Family. It is reported that the Marquis deviſed the greateſt Part of his Eſtate to the Right Hon. the Lord Herbert of Cherburg.

On Tueſday Night at Mrs. Galli's Benefit, a Woman, went with her two Children (and with Child of another) up with her Huſband, a Scene-Shifter, into the Flyes to ſee the Opera, where ſhe had ſtood very ſecurely till the Middle of the laſt Act: but being curious to look forward upon the Stage, ſhe ſtept her Foot upon Part of the Sounding Board, which broke with her, and ſhe fell down at once upon the Stage: She was inſtantly taken up, and carried behind the Scenes, and a Phyſician and Surgeon who were at the Opera ran immediately to her Aſſiſtance, and attempted to bleed her, but to no Purpoſe, ſhe being quite dead. The whole Houſe was in ſo great Confuſion, that they could not go on with the Opera.

Monday a Countryman went into the Sun and Wheatſheaf Alehouſe at Queenhithe, and called for a Pint of Ale, drank Part of it, and died immediately. It appeared by his Pocket-Book, that his Name was Tho. Strutton, a wealthy Farmer and Malſter, and lived at Hurly near Maidenhead, in Berkſhire.

We have Advice from Chipping-Norton in Oxfordſhire, that on Sunday the 31ſt of January laſt, a Perſon of that Place who keeps a Dairy, had a Cow bit by a mad Dog; and that notwithſtanding they knew the Dog which bit her to be mad, they continued to milk the Cow as uſual, and ſold the Milk ſometimes alone and at other Times mixed with the Milk of other Cows, to a great many Families in the Town, till Sunday the 21ſt paſt, being three Weeks, when the Cow viſibly appeared to be mad, and two or three narrowly eſcaped being killed by her; upon which ſhe was ſhut up till Tueſday laſt, and the Madneſs ſtill continuing to increaſe, ſhe was then ſhot to prevent further Damage; but what became of the Dog that bit her is not known. 'Tis hard to expreſs the Anxiety this melancholy Affair has occaſioned in that Town; the Event of which, 'tis feared, may prove of terrible Conſequence, as there are great Numbers of People who have juſt Reaſons to ſuſpect they have uſed the Milk or Cream of this Cow during the Time of her being infected with Madneſs; many of whom, by the Advice of a Phyſician, are already gone down to the Salt Water to be dipp'd, and 'tis feared many more will be obliged to the like.

They write from Portſmouth that on Saturday laſt the Aſſizes ended at the Caſtle of Winton, for that County, when two Perſons received Sentence of Death, viz. Elizabeth Deer, for ſtealing 26 l. from William Bills of Portſmouth; and Richard Heath, for robbing Elizabeth Hewdy on the Highway near the Gun-Wharf. Lieutenant Aikenhead, belonging to the Chicheſter Man of War, for unfortunately killing one of his Boat's Crew, was Acquitted. As was likewiſe Mr. Allen of the Neptune, who was tried for the Murder of a Boy who plyed the Paſſage, by firing a Piſtol to prevent the Wherry, at an unreaſonable Time of Night, from coming to the Ship in the Harbour, to carry off ſome of his Crew from their Duty; but as there was no Proof of his firing the Piſtol, he was acquitted.

Wedneſday a Meſſenger came from the Secretaries Office to the New Jail, Southwark, with a further Reſpite of three Months for Mr. Macdonald, the Pretender's Banker, who is under Sentence of Death for High Treaſon.

On Tueſday laſt William Thompſon, a notorious Pickpocket, was committed to the Gatehouſe, by Thomas Burdas, Eſq; for aſſaulting a Gentleman as he was coming out of Covent Garden Playhouſe, and attempting to pick his Pocket.

On Monday laſt was committed to Maidſtone Jail, in Kent by the Honourable Robert Fairfax, John Cage and James Calder, Eſqrs. John Prior and Thomas Prior, two notorious Smugglers, charged on the Oaths of ſeveral Perſons, with great Suſpicion of being aiding and aſſiſting, and breaking into the ſaid Jail, on Tueſday the 17th of November laſt, and reſcuing from thence their Brother Samuel Prior (under Sentence of Tranſportation) Richard Blundell, Francis Marketman and John Hales, all four Smugglers.

Monday Mr. Goodwin, a Butcher of Kenſington, was attack'd on Hounſlow Heath by a ſingle Highwayman, who robbed him of Seven Pounds and his Watch.

Laſt Week the Malthouſe of Mr. Clare, at Heckſham in Derbyſhire, took Fire, and, in a ſhort Time, was burnt to the Ground. Mr. Clare was gone to Market when this Accident happened, and the Perſon who attended the Kiln was burnt to Death.

Sunday Morning arrived an Expreſs from Briſtol with an Account, that the Tyger Privateer, Capt. Seix, of that Port, arrived there the 4th Inſt. with a Spaniſh Regiſter Ship, called the Thereſa, from New Spain, but laſt from the Havanna, bound to Cadiz, which the ſaid Privateer had taken, within eight Leagues of that Port. This Prize is ſaid to be of conſiderable Value, having on board 60,000 Dollars in Specie, beſides a very rich Cargoe. The Tyger having fallen in with Sir Peter Warren's Squadron, five Days before his Arrival at Briſtol, the Captain of her took the Money out of his Prize, and put it on board Admiral Warren, who ordered a Man of War of 40 Guns to ſee him and his Prize ſafe to Briſtol. Captain Siex, of this Privateer, reports that when he left the Admiral, the Engliſh had taken two Privateers, and two retaken Merchant Ships.

They write from Yvica in the Mediterranean, that an Algerine Saic having made a deſcent on that Iſland, and carried off 40 Priſoners, among whom was a young Lady married to a Gentleman of Majorca, the Huſband upon hearing the News, immediately manned a Brigantine, and went in queſt of the Rover, which he had the good Luck to come up with, and take in Sight of Algiers; and after recovering his Wife, and the reſt of the Captives, he ſet fire to the Veſſel, and arrived ſafe at Yvica, to the inexpreſſible Joy of the Inhabitants.

M. de la Bourdenaye when he arrived at Paris, waited upon the French King and Miniſters, who gave him at firſt a ſeeming gracious reception: But a Day or two afterwards he was committed to the Baſtille, in order to be brought to an Account for his Conduct in the Eaſt Indies.

This Day is publiſh'd, the Sixteenth Edition, of ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution and all its frightful Conſequences (in both Sexes) conſidered, with Spiritual and Phyſical Advice to thoſe who have allready injured themſelves by this abominable Practice.

As alſo the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Reviſed and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the ſeveral Paſſages in the former Impreſſions, that have been charged with being obſcure and ambiguous, are in theſe clear'd up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

Theſe Editions contain ſome further and ſurprizing Inſtances of the Miſchiefs by that filthy, ſinful Commerce with one's ſelf, which is ſo notoriouſly practiſed, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inſerted, ſhew.

And, amongſt others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Anſwer to it, concerning the Uſe and Abuſe of the Marriage-Bed; together with divers Caſuiſtical and other Letters from both Sexes, of ſome ſecret unnatural Effeminacies, neceſſary to be known both by the married and ſingle of each Sex.

To which is added,

A Curious PIECE tranſlated out of the Latin, from L. S. SCHMEDIER, as it is inſerted in the Acta Lipſienſia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Maſs of Blood; well worth the Peruſal of Phyſicians, Surgeons, Anatomiſts, and all others of Art and Curioſity.

As alſo Dr. QUINCY's Tranſlation of Dr. CARR's remarkable Anſwer to a Letter ſent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewiſe Dr. DRAKE's and ſeveral other Phyſicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Reſemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Caſe of a young Lady of 18, whoſe well-wrote Letter to the Author, deſcribing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inſerted

A very grave and learned Divine and Phyſician having peruſed this Diſcourſe, before it went to the Preſs, returned it with his Opinion of it in theſe Words

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profeſſion, or Condition 'ſoever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed againſt in it.'

Is now ſold (Mr ISTED, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetſtreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3 s. 6 d.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moiſture or very Eſſence of Life, and inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to Poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholly diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miſerable, and ſhort-liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe waſting Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self-pollution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtrictive Balſamick Electuary, that no one, now bad forever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights before it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Practitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be ſafely rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. This Grand Medicine is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, London, at 6 s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt-paid.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE ſhorteſt, ſafe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleaſant to take, and as eaſy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; ſo that the unfortunate Patient gets ſuddenly and ſurprizingly well, without Diſtaſte to his Palate, the leaſt Diſorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now ſo well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SYPHILICON that Radcliffe and Garth uſed to ſay would totally extirpate the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth, were it but univerſally known, and properly taken. Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it preſently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a ſafe, gentle, and pleaſant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Perſons, in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary; nay can the deepeſt Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Evil, or Leproſy, ſtand before it, but are pleaſantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the higheſt and moſt inveterate State of the conſumed Venereal Diſeaſe; which, with all its moſt raging Symptoms, it ſoon eradicates, reſtoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Thoſe who once take it, will never have Occaſion to any Thing elſe.

One Pot in moſt Caſes is ſufficient for a Cure, and can only be had at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 6 s. a Pot, ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, in which all Perſons may fully underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

No Letters anſwered unleſs Poſt-paid.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovelaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription, (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Intertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorate ing Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tenderſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s 6 d.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exſeparated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this many Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutions, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumpiton of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumption, which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they moſt aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets Kind, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to rights and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons faſtigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the abovemention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtruction, which whomſoever carefully reads will be compleat Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is intirely extirpated or not. Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt paid.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure for that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived in the higheſt or moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation, or the leaſt Purging, which, by an unaccountable Miſtake, is generally adviſed, altho' always found rather to encreaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, doat once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them. In Three Days Time are convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breaking-out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them; inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they aſſuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enen the whole Machine, and, as ſoon as taken, make the Patient pleaſantly lightſome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be ſure to have the Right, which, by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, ſo as never to return again, be they ever ſo ſevere, or of many Years ſtanding, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately ſtriking at the very Root or true Cauſe, as well as remedying the Effects, of thoſe perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almoſt all the Diſeaſes poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Riſe from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigeſtion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Diſorders in the firſt Paſſages, ill Fumes, ſour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneaſineſs in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Conſent of Parts affect the Head, and produce ſometimes Giddineſs, Dimneſs of Sight, confuſed Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troubleſome Sleep, Frights, groundleſs Fears, and the deepeſt Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehenſions; at other times, Fits, flaſhing Heats, Reachings, Faintneſs, Lowneſs and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulſive Diſorders, ſharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakneſs in the Back, and other almoſt innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miſerably afflict vaſt Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their ſharpeſt Paroxyſms, theſe ſomuch fam'd and moſt pleaſant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the moſt valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms and exalted to the higheſt Degree of Perfection poſſible) inſtantly quell, and at the ſame time annihilate their real Cauſe, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, reſtoring the Digeſtion, occaſioning laudable Chyle, and, of courſe, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; ſo that both Cauſe and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almoſt on the Spot, as the many Thouſands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be ſenſible they are abſolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and laſting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

And as the very firſt Doſe makes an apparent demonſtrable Amendment, ſo the continuing it for a ſhort Time, as ſurely accompliſhes a perfect Cure, not only of the moſt grievous Palſy or Reſolution of the Sinews, but alſo of their Cramp-like Contractions, ſhrinking of the Nerves, and all other nervous Complaints whatever, and than it Perſons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occaſioned by preceeding Illneſſes, faſt Living, hard Drinking, long Courſes of Phyſick, great Colds, or exceſſive Fatigues either of Mind or Body.
